Hymn History - "Turn your eyes upon Jesus" was written by Helen H. Lemmel in 1922. Inspired by the life of missionary Lillias Trotter, based off a poem she had written entitled "Focused: A Story and a Song." Lillias Trotter (1853–1928) from London, England was an anointed artist with a potential career path direction if she chose to take it. While she loved art, she also felt a calling from God to reach the lost. Her response to this call was to share Jesus with the unreached people groups in Algeria in Northern Africa. Responding to this calling would come at a great cost as it would require her to lay down her budding career as an artist. To learn more about Lillias check out the beautiful documentary made about her life called "Many Beautiful Things" found on YouTube.
